Carol Robb

ARKANSAS CITY — Carol Anne Robb, 60, of Arkansas City, began her eternal life Sept. 12, 2015, at the Via Christi St. Francis Harry Hynes Memorial Hospice in Wichita.

Services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at the First Baptist Church. Pastor Jack Dickson will officiate.

Friends may greet the family from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at Rindt-Erdman Funeral Home.

Online condolences may be made at www.rindt-erdman.com.

A memorial has been established in her honor for the Shepherd's Grace Meal Ministries or Victory In The Valley. Contributions may be made through the funeral home.

Carol was born June 4, 1955, to Barbara L. (Wilcoxon) and William G. Weston, Jr., in Arkansas City. She was reared and educated in Arkansas City, graduating from Arkansas City High School in 1973. After high school, Carol attended nurse's training in Wichita and completed more courses at Cowley College.

On Aug. 17, 1974, Carol married Michael Robb, in Arkansas City where they made their home. They were married for 35 years.

Carol worked as a nurse's aide for the Ark City Memorial Hospital (SCKMC) for a few years. She then went to work as an engine mechanic and work leader for General Electric Jet Engine Maintenance Facility at Strother Field for 30 years until her retirement in 2009.

Carol really enjoyed any kind of traveling she got to do. Attending the World's Fair in Montreal in 1967 was one of her favorite trips. Carol loved spending time with her family, cooking and having cookouts. She always loved spoiling her kids and grandchildren. Making people smile brought her great joy. She enjoyed spending time planting flowers and working in the yard as well as scrap booking. Carol loved and raised her three Yorkies: Grace, Shiloh and Squeaky.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brother William "Billy" Weston and a niece Kristi Leiker.

Survivors include her sons Jason Robb, Michael Robb, Jr., daughter Heather and husband Ross Marrs; and former husband Michael Robb, Sr., all of Arkansas City; sisters Janet Leiker and fiancé Jack Dailey, Overland Park, and Linda Terrill, Winfield; grandchildren Breanna Robb, Teagan Pool, Ashtyn Robb, Shae Marrs, Landon Marrs and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.
