Joan Patterson

Joan Patterson, 92, of Winfield, passed away Sept. 19, 2015, at Riverview Manor, Oxford. Services will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday in Dexter Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers a memorial has been established in Joan's name for the Dexter Christian Church. Contributions may be made through Miles Funeral Service.

Online condolences may be made at www.milesfuneral-service.com.

Joan was born March 1, 1923, in Woodward, Okla., to Joseph R. and Leah (Sutton) Knoble. She attended school in Fargo, Okla. In 1938, she married Elmer Morgan in Woodward. To this union two children were born, a daughter Viva and a son Gary.

Joan moved to Coldwater in 1943. She received her high school GED by correspondence and was a self-taught bookkeeper. She held several secretarial and book-keeping positions while living in Coldwater.

In 1962, Joan moved to Wichita and worked as a bookkeeper for Crony's Dress Shop and Baker Engineering. In June 1967, she began working for Byron Radcliff and Valentine Buildings. She moved to Dexter and worked for Radcliff Ranch and kept the books for the Dexter Fire Department. Joan retired from Radcliff Ranch in September 2009 at the age of 86. She was very proud of the fact that she was 86 and still working. She loved working; in fact, she put up quite a fuss when she was forced to retire due to her health.

When she wasn't working, she enjoyed camping, fishing and dancing. She loved to dance, and when she was younger she would be the first one on the dance floor.

In 1981, Joan married Gary Patterson. They had a camper and spent time at Winfield City Lake in the summers. She wasn't a housekeeper but she was a good cook, and boy, could she make good candy and jelly. She cooked a big turkey dinner on Thanksgiving and Christmas until she just couldn't do that anymore, and you never knew who was going to be there. Everyone was welcome at her house. She made friends easily and had many good friends. She loved her children, and her grandchildren were the apple of her eye.

Joan received Jesus as her Lord later in life and went to church at the Dexter Christian Church as long as her health permitted.

In June 2012, as her health deteriorated, she moved to Riverview Manor in Oxford. She accepted that move gracefully and made the best of the situation. Even then, she had a sweet smile and was loved by both the staff and other residents; they called her Grandma. She was always happy for the visits she received and never complained.

In addition to her parents, Joan was preceded in death by her baby sister Viva and sister Barbara; half-sister June; and her husband Gary Patterson.

Survivors include her daughter Viva McGee and husband Gary, and her son Gary Morgan and wife Glenda, all of Wichita; granddaughter Lisa McGee, Wichita; grandson Scott Morgan, Dallas, Texas; and great-grandson Tyler Morgan, Florida.
