

DEATHS AND SERVICES

Harry Barnhouse

Harry D. Barnhouse, 89, of Winfield, passed away Sept. 21, 2015, at Winfield Senior Living Center.

Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday in the Wilmot Cemetery, north of Winfield.

Friends may sign a register book from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday at Miles Funeral Service.

The family suggests memorials in Harry's name be made to the First Christian Church. Contributions may be made through the funeral home.

Online condolences may be made at www.milesfuneralservice.com.

Harry was born Sept. 12, 1926, in Winfield, to Ralph and Edna (Mumaugh) Barnhouse. He was raised and educated in Winfield and graduated from Winfield High School in 1944. As a young man, Harry was manager of the Nile Movie Theater and later worked at Gott Manufacturing.

On June 5, 1949, Harry married June Stites in Winfield where the couple made their home. Harry was employed by the City of Winfield in the light department. He began working for the United States Postal Service as a letter carrier, carrying mail for 22 years. Following his retirement, he worked in the appraiser's office at the Cowley County Courthouse and also worked part time at Miles Funeral Service.

Harry was a lifelong, faithful member of the First Christian Church serving in several capacities. He loved watching baseball and riding his bicycle. He enjoyed television, especially the Andy Griffith Show and Lawrence Welk. He and June enjoyed attending the Winfield Band concerts and eating out.

He said his greatest achievement was being married to June, "the love of his life," for 66 years.

In addition to his parents, Harry was preceded in death by his sister Martha Barnhouse Wright; and brothers, Bill, Jim and Dick Barnhouse.

Survivors include his wife June Barnhouse, of the home; daughters Linda Barnhouse, Wichita, Nancy Wilson and husband Keith, Winfield, and Marsha King and husband Kyle, Glendale, Ariz.; grandchildren Barclay Wilson Milton and husband Howard, Brooke Wilson, Chad Wilson, Heather King Cook and husband Jeff, and Amber King; great-grandchildren Camryn and Kyle Dryden, Makena and Cooper Cook, Connor, Claire and Callie Milton, and Avery and Max Wilson; sisters-in-laws Elaine Barnhouse, Winfield, Jody Barnhouse, Arkansas City, and Fern Kircher, of Colorado; and special friend of the family Joan Krack.

Norman Fry

ARKANSAS CITY — Norman Perry Fry, 85, of Arkansas City, died Sept. 20, 2015, in South Central Kansas Medical Center.

Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Rindt-Erdman Funeral Home, Arkansas City. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Memorials are to Gentiva Hospice. Contributions may be made through the funeral home.

Online condolences may be made at www.rindt-erdman.com

Norman worked at Mauer Neuer Meat Packing plant for 33 years.

He was preceded in death by his parents Albert and Sarah Elizabeth (Van Pelt) Fry; son Danny Fry; four brothers; a granddaughter; and a great-grandson.

Survivors include his wife Darlene (Emmons) Fry, of the home; daughters Debbie Dillon, Marci Moore and Bernadette Hicks, all of Arkansas City, and Denise Lambert, Newkirk; a daughter-in-law; sister Nona Crain, Arkansas City; 11 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; two brothers-in-law and two sisters-in-laws; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Barbara Love-Lawrence

Barbara Love-Lawrence, 78, of Winfield, passed away Sept. 19, 2015, at her home.

Services will be 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 2, at Miles Funeral Service. Private family inurnment will take place at a later date.

A memorial has been established in Barbara's name for the Cowley County Humane Society. Contributions may be made through the funeral home.

Online condolence may be made at www.milesfuneralservice.com.

Barbara was born March 10, 1937, in Arkansas City, to Merrill "Bud" and Mary Francis (Reeder) Caton. She was raised and educated in Winfield and graduated from Winfield High School in 1955.

Barbara married Arnold R. Love in 1955 at Grace Episcopal Church in Winfield. They enjoyed boating for many years all over the Midwest, including Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Kansas. They also enjoyed snow skiing and loved attending dances with friends. Mr. Love preceded her in death.

Barbara enjoyed planning and participating in fabulously fun class reunions and was president in 2010. While at a class reunion, she reunited with Earl L. Lawrence and on June 13, 1992, the couple married. They enjoyed traveling all over the United States and lived in California for seven years. They also traveled to Mexico and most recently, Brazil. Barbara enjoyed hosting foreign exchange students from Brazil, Germany and Norway. She was very proud of Ingunn and Rodrigo with whom she has kept in touch.

Barbara was always donating her time; she was an EMT Rescue Reserve with the Winfield EMS and taught CPR. She was a president of the State Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. She was also a member of Cowley County Hospice, Cowley County Humane Society and Elks, and was a Winfield Main Street volunteer and served on the Cowley County Historical Society. Barbara loved her chosen career as a medical transcriptionist, starting at the Winfield State Hospital & Training Center and later at Snyder Clinic, California Transcription and Winfield Medical Arts.

In addition to her parents and first husband, Barbara was preceded in death by her son Brett Merrill Love and infant daughter Debra Marie Love.

Survivors include her husband Earl Lawrence, Winfield; daughters Mary Carolyn Love, Winfield, Cheryl Lawrence Wise and husband, Peter, Springfield, Ill., Lynda Lawrence Simon and husband, Jim, Bartlett, Ill., Nancy Lawrence Boyer, Irvine, Calif., and Tammy Lawrence, Palo Alto, Calif.; son Tom Lawrence and wife Kim, Springfield, Ill.; 10 grandchildren; many special friends, including Dee, Mike, Allison, Adrienne and Skylar Ledy; two cats Amelia and Kitten; and many former international exchange students worldwide.

CORRECTIONS AND CLARIFICATIONS

Correction

In a press release with information about the 2015 National Hammer Dulcimer Championship Contest, the first place winner's last name was mistakenly misspelled. Her name correctly spelled is Tina Gugeler. The name of one person whose photo appears on page 6 was also misspelled. It should be Alicen Fleming. The Courier apologizes for the errors.

Clarification

The location of the Community Crop Hunger Walk to be held Sunday was inadvertently omitted from the article. The walk will be from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday in the Pecan Grove, just south of the Winfield Fairgrounds.
