Holy Name Catholic School annual auction is Sept. 26

Holy Name Catholic School will hold their third annual auction at 10:30 a.m. Sept. 26 at the Winfield Fairgrounds. The faculty, parents and students have been working hard to find donations. If you would like to contribute, feel free to call the school at 221-0230. Last year the event grew substantially and featured many new gift baskets, certificates and even weekend trips. The high selling items last year were an ATV and a van. The school raises money to help with the costs to operate it. Holy Name is a parochial school and not private, which means students attend at no cost and receive an outstanding faith-based education K-6. All donations are fully tax deductible and purchases at the auction are deductible for any amount paid over the fair market value. "We hope for another success, but we need the help of our community," said principal Kim Porter. "See you all on auction day."
