Horning

Memorials are to the United Methodist Church in Belle Plaine. For further information, visit www.shelleyfamily-fh.com.

Doris was born Jan. 13, 1950, in Lindsay, Okla., to Opal W. and Mildred (Parker) Webb.

In 1972, Doris married Mark Horning in Oklahoma City. She enjoyed life immensely; she loved pets, decorating, traveling and reading. She especially treasured her daughter Emily and son-in-law David, and grandchildren Anthony, Jerushka and Nicholas.

She was a remarkable prayer warrior and loved the Lord her whole life. Doris enjoyed many wonderful friendships and was especially grateful to her church family at Belle Plaine United Methodist Church.

In addition to her parents, Doris was preceded in death by five siblings.

Survivors include her husband Mark Horning, of the home; daughter Emily Anne Craddock and husband David, Belle Plaine; grandchildren Anthony Fergola, Nicholas Wells and Jerushka Craddock; sister Lois Morris, Lindsay, Okla., mother-in-law Monta Horning, Belle Plaine; and brother-in-law Rex Horning, Stillwater, Okla.

Pat Rogers, resident at Alderbrook Village Assisted Living

Pat Rogers states the following reasons why she likes Alderbrook Village. She says the staff is kind, caring, and helpful. She says they always help her get her medications on time every day. "One important thing is that I have my own apartment with my own furniture. It feels almost like home. I can do as many of the activities as I want or none at all. I also enjoy the meals in the dining room. They are always good and the atmosphere is always warm and cheery."
