

DEATHS AND SERVICES

Zack Fisher

BURLINGTON, Colo. — Zachary Golde Fisher, 43, of Burlington, Colo., formerly of Burden, passed away unexpectedly from this earth on Sept. 21, 2015.

Services were held on Oct. 3 at the Cheyenne Wells (Colo.) High School with Pastor Tom Burch officiating.

Special bagpipe music was provided by Micah Hansen.

Honorary casket bearers were Mike Engelbrecht, Tom Sweet, Eric Hazzard, Trevor Aeschliman, Mike Gibbs, Brian Sweet, Vance Hazzard and Chris Weed.

Memorial contributions can be made to the William Kimmell Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9700 in Cheyenne Wells, CO 80810.

Arrangements were Brown Funeral Home, Cheyenne Wells.

Friends and family can register online condolences and sign the guestbook at www.brownfuneraldirectors.com. Cards can reach the family: Britt Bannon, PO Box 897, Cheyenne Wells, CO 80810; Sunny Fisher, PO Box 216, Dexter, KS 67038; Shannon Fisher-Valles, 302 E. Fifth, Burden, KS 67019; Julie Moore, 805 Elm, Burden, KS, 67019.

Zack was born July 2, 1972, in Brewster, Wash., to Dick and Connie (Hazzard) Fisher.

Zack had a love for animals, kids, nature, art, fitness and, most of all, for God. Zack was a man of many talents and interests. In his short life, he was a U.S. Marine, Certified Dive Master, high rise window washer (rappelling), marathon runner, wrestling coach, holistic massage therapist, talented artist and a great caregiver to his mother Connie Bannon. He was a spiritual philosopher who really cared and wanted to help people, especially with their healing. But most of all, he was an AWESOME son, brother, uncle, nephew and friend to many!

Surviving to lovingly honor his memory are his stepfather Britt Bannon, Cheyenne Wells; sisters Julie Moore and husband Kenn, and Shannon Valles and husband Erasmo, all of Burden, and Sundance Young, Dexter; stepbrother Heath Bannon and wife Jessie, Elk City. Zack is also survived by 10 nieces and nephews and four great-nieces and great-nephews, as well as many other loving family members.

Wava Chisum

Wava G. (Wright) Chisum, 98, of Winfield, passed away peacefully Oct. 22, 2015.

Services will be 1 p.m. Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church.

Arrangements are by Shelley Family Funeral Home. Memorials in Wava's name may be made to the First United Methodist Church. Contributions can be left in care of the funeral home.

Wava was born Sept. 25, 1917, in Spearville, to loving parents Wade and Daisy Wright. She graduated from Jetmore High School in 1934, and later attended Fort Hays State University and Emporia State Teachers College. She also received a bachelor's degree from Southwestern College.

Wava married her beloved husband Richard J. Chisum on the Sept. 16, 1939, in Tulsa, Okla.

In 1940, Wava and Richard moved to Winfield and began teaching. Wava taught for 28 years and received the Master Teacher Award for all her years of dedication.

She was a dedicated member of many organizations, including: membership at the First United Methodist Church of Winfield, the Eve Club, Worthwhile Club, Book Club, Faculty Club Friends and the Anna Ruth Circle, to name a few. Wava was an avid reader, loved nature and being outdoors, and also enjoyed traveling and going to her husband's dog shows.

In addition to her parents, Wava was preceded in death by her husband Richard J. Chisum; son Max Chisum; brother John Wright and sisters Arlene Dowdy and Florence Sloan.

Surviving to honor Wava's memory are her son Roger "Jack" Chisum and wife Trish, Phoenix, Ariz.; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.
