

DEATHS AND SERVICES

Cecil Shore

CEDAR VALE — Cecil Merle Shore, 83, of Cedar Vale, passed away May 14, 2015, at his home. Services will be 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Cedar Vale Baptist Church with the Rev. Mark Davis of the First Baptist Church of Sedan officiating. Burial will be in the Cedar Vale Cemetery. Arrangements are by Dickens Family Funeral Home, 209 N. Douglas, Sedan, KS 67361. Visitation will be from noon until 8 p.m. today at the funeral home, with the family receiving friends from 6 to 8.

The family has suggested memorials go to the Dickens Family Funeral Home for the funeral expenses. Cecil was born Dec. 28, 1931, in Argonia, to Sea S. and Cora May (Hanna) Shore. He graduated from Cambridge High School with the class of 1949. After high school he worked three years for Shore and Sons Construction. On Oct. 3, 1952, Cecil enlisted in the United States Army and served for two years until he was honorably discharged on Oct. 2, 1954.

Cecil owned and operated a cafe for a number of years; worked as a street superintendent for the City of Winfield; and worked as an alcohol and drug rehab counselor in the early to mid-1990s. He worked as a Chautauqua County Sheriff Reserve officer and also served as police chief for the City of Cedar Vale. He was involved on the Cedar Vale Fire Department Board. On August 8, 1999, he married Chris Jennings in Cedar Vale, where they have made their home for the last 18 years.

Cecil was a lifetime member of the Cryptic Masons in Winfield. He also enjoyed woodworking, camping, fishing and playing music. In addition to his parents, Cecil was preceded in death by his sister Betty Knapp.

Survivors include his wife Chris Shore of the home; daughters Dr. Cecilia Shore, Oxford, Ohio, Sheila Knapp, Oxford, and Linda Kay Overby, Ponca City, Okla.; son Merle Overby, Winfield; sister Josephine Davidson, Ninnekah, Okla.; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

AUGUSTA — Dean V. Watts, 91, of Augusta, passed away May 17, 2015, at the Kansas Veterans Home in Winfield. Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Old Mission Cemetery, 3424 E. 24th Street, Wichita. Arrangements are by Miles Funeral Service. Memorials are to RiverCross Hospice. Contributions may be made through the funeral home. Online condolences may be made at www.milesfuneral-service.com.

Upon his honorable discharge from the Army, Dean returned to Douglass and began working for Boeing Aircraft Company where he remained for over 23 years. After making his home in Augusta, Dean worked for Scholfield Realty as a licensed real estate agent. Dean was preceded in death by his parents Loren and Hattie (Roll) Watts; sister Ramona and brother Dale.

Survivors include his wife of 46 years, Martha (Kephart) Watts, Augusta; son Troy Watts, Augusta; brother Eldon Watts, Wichita; step-children Wade Dulin, Wichita, Karen Yost, Augusta, and Donna Jacot, Moline; a grandson; four step-grandchildren; three great-grandchildren and two on the way.

Susan Quint

Susan Marie (Feldman) Quint, 46, of Winfield, went to her heavenly home on May 15, 2015, after a valiant fight with brain cancer. Services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Central Baptist Church. Inurnment will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Great Bend Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements are by Miles Funeral Service. Memorials have been established for Victory in the Valley, Gentiva Hospice and Central Baptist Church Children's Ministry. Contributions may be made through the funeral home. Online condolences may be made at www.milesfuneral-service.com.

Susan was born March 19, 1969, in Great Bend, to Richard and Jackye (Strother) Feldman. Susan graduated from Great Bend High School and attended Barton County Community College. She obtained an office manager degree from Wichita Area Vocational Technical College. She earned an associate degree from Cowley County Community College in early childhood education and became a certified dietary manager. Susan married Roger E. Quint in 1995, in Great Bend. The couple made their home in Winfield. She worked as a certified dietary manager at Medicalodge in Douglass.

Quint

Susan was a member of Central Baptist Church in Winfield. She volunteered for the American Red Cross where she taught CPR and first aid classes. She was active as a youth in 4-H, and in her church. Susan was preceded in death by her brother Timothy Feldman; grandfather Jack Strother; aunt Susan Marie Strother; and another much-loved dog, Mickey.

Survivors include her husband Roger Quint, Winfield; brothers Duane Feldman and wife, Sandy, Great Bend, and Todd Feldman, Winfield; sisters Debbie Johnson, Topeka, and Kathy Berglund and husband Bruce, Derby; her 13 nieces and nephews, whom she delighted in; Katlyn and Erin Feldman; Timothy, Quinton and Shala Johnson; Erica, Jonathan and Carly Berglund; and Mark, Vinnie, Vic, Dillon and Mackenzie Fiori; maternal grandmother Louise Strother, Winfield; paternal grandparents Harold and Clara Mae Feldman, Great Bend; and much-loved dog Teddy Bear.

Patricia Spengler

Services were held for Patricia Anne Spengler at 2 p.m. May 16, 2015, in the Colonial Chapel of Miles Funeral Service. Pastor Keith Cross officiated. Inurnment was in New Salem Cemetery.

Special music selections were "I Can Only Imagine" performed by Mercy Me, "In the Garden" and "When I Get Where I'm Going" performed by Brad Paisley, and "I'll Fly Away" performed by Alan Jackson. Memorials are to the Alzheimer's Research Center.
